Biographical Information

Dorothy (Dottie) Schick (1930-2005) was the daughter of Bertha and Albert Wasserman of Arlington, Virginia. The Wasserman's owned the landmark Al's Motors, the oldest Chrysler-Plymouth dealership in Northern Virginia. Dottie Schick graduated from Washington and Lee High School, received her bachelor's degree from the University of Oklahoma, and studied at the Corcoran College of Art and Design. Mrs. Schick was a longtime Northern Virginia Democratic activist and served as a member of the Democratic National Committee and chairwoman of the Fairfax Democratic Committee. For 38 years, Dottie and her husband, Adolph (Sonny) Schick, hosted the annual Mason District Democratic Committee Crab Feast, attended by hundreds of elected officials, candidates, lobbyists, and supporters. Guests ranged from former presidents Jimmy Carter and Bill Clinton to former governors Charles S. Robb and L. Douglas Wilder, along with many local officials and candidates.

Scope and Content

Collection, 1926-2004 (bulk 1968-2002), of Dottie Schick, longtime Northern Virginia Democratic activist. Throughout her career in politics, Mrs. Schick collected a variety of Democratic artifacts and memorabilia. The bulk of the collection includes materials collected during her tenure, 1968-2004, although she collected materials dating to 1926. The collection includes campaign brochures and posters, correspondence, inaugural invitations and programs, Democratic Committee and Democratic Party of Virginia convention materials, photographs, publications, and scrapbooks. Also included are numerous artifacts including bumper stickers, campaign buttons, commemorative coins, lapel pins, hats, and pens. Campaign materials are included for Leslie Byrne, Jimmy Carter, Bill Clinton, Dwight D. Eisenhower, Henry Howell, John F. Kennedy, George McGovern, Harold Miller, J. Sargeant Reynolds, Charles Robb, Franklin Roosevelt, Mary Sue Terry, Harry F. Truman, Mark Warner, and L. Douglas Wilder, among others. Although the majority of the collection relates to the Democratic Party, included are some artifacts and papers relating to the Republican Party.

Arrangement

This collection is arranged into the following series:

Boxes 1-24 (box)

Extent

Extent: 27 boxes.

Scope and Content

Papers, 1926-2004, including campaign and inauguration papers, convention materials, correspondence, directories, invitations, newsletters, photographs, and publications. The papers mainly consist of campaign and inauguration papers for various local and national political figures and are arranged alphabetically by last name of politician. The campaign and inauguration papers include biographies, correspondence, committee lists, inaugural invitations and programs, newspaper clippings, press releases, publications, and resumes. Papers relating to Presidential campaigns include those of Harry S. Truman, Dwight Eisenhower, John F. Kennedy, Lyndon Johnson, Jimmy Carter, Walter Mondale, Michael Dukakis, Bill Clinton, Al Gore, and John Kerry. Papers relating to local campaigns include those of Gerald Baliles, Henry Howell, Henry MacKall, Dorothy McDiarmid, John Melnick, Andrew Miller, Harold Miller, John Milliken, J. Sargeant Reynolds, Charles Robb, Mark Warner, and L. Douglas Wilder.

Also included are brochures, invitations, guides, programs, official proceedings, and tickets, from conventions held by the Democratic Party of Virginia and Democratic National Committee. Minutes, committee lists, finances, and reports relating to the Democratic Party of Virginia are also included, as well as The Fairfax County Democrat newsletters, 1972-1989.

The correspondence, 1968-1998, mainly includes campaign letters asking for Mrs. Schick's support or thanking her for her support, purchase of tickets and comments about the Crab Feast, and candidates announcing bids for election. Included are letters from many prominent local and national politicians. Photographs include presidential and local inaugurations, Crab Feasts, campaign fundraisers, and miscellaneous political figures. The collection also includes several programs, 1970-1990, from Jefferson-Jackson Day dinners held by various chapters of the Democratic Party of Virginia.

Of note are Dottie Schick's campaigns for Democratic National Committeewoman, including announcements, correspondence, clippings, flyers, and resumes. Also of note are the attendees lists, clippings, flyers, guest book, tickets, photographs, and invitations for the Mason District Crab Feasts and Schick Seafood Extravaganza, 1973-1996.
