Historical Information

Henrico County was named for Henry, Prince of Wales, the oldest son of James I. It was one of the eight original shires established in 1634.

All county court records prior to 1655 and almost all prior to 1677 are missing. Many records were destroyed by British troops during the Revolutionary War. Post-Revolutionary War county court records exist. Almost all circuit superior court of law and chancery and circuit court records were destroyed by fire during the evacuation of Richmond on 3 April 1865 in the Civil War. The county's circuit court held its sessions at the state courthouse in Richmond.

Scope and Content

Henrico County (Va.) Map and Survey of Road Districts, 1884, consist of a map and survey of fourteen road districts in Henrico County west of Mechanicsville Turnpike. The survey records the boundaries of each road district. The map shows the boundaries of each road district, roads, bridges, and prominent landmarks such as creeks, coal pits, stores, mills, and churches.
