Historical Information

Albemarle County was named for William Anne Keppel, second earl of Albemarle and governor of the Virginia colony from 1737 to 1754. It was formed from Goochland County in 1744, and part of Louisa County and certain islands in the Fluvanna River, now called the James, were added later.

Scope and Content

Albemarle County (Va.) Settlement of the Estate of John Rogers, 1851. The record documents the disbursement of money to various people and the receipt of three enslaved people, Lucy and child and Robert, by W.M. Hawkins.
