Historical Information

Stafford County was named for the English county. It was formed from Westmoreland County in 1664. Part of King George County was added in 1777. The county seat is Stafford.

Many pre-Civil War court records were lost to vandalism by Union troops during the Civil War. A few volumes that record deeds, court orders, and wills exist.

The original records were created by the County Court.

Scope and Content

Stafford County (Va.) Deed Book, 1722-1728, records the name of the grantor and grantee, the residence of both individuals and the description of property being sold or transferred. The volume also includes wills--the name of the testator, list of heirs and the year the wills were proven in court and probate records such as inventories and appraisements, settlements of estates and administrator/executor and guardian accounts.
