Historical Information

Benjamin H. Powell perhaps served as an agent for Muddy Creek Mill, a flour mill in Cumberland County.

Scope and Content

Muddy Creek Mill Account Book, 1847-1850, records on an almost daily basis services rendered by the mill for individual customers (bushels of wheat ground, amount of flour purchased, etc.,) and the amount owed and paid. At the front of the volume is Benjamin H. Powell's flour shipping list. Each entry contains the date flour was shipped, by whom shipped, and the amount shipped. At the back of the volume is Powell's wheat book that perhaps records amount of bushels of wheat per customer processed by mill. Each entry includes the date, name of customer, and amount of bushels processed.
