Historical Information

Fairfax County was named for Thomas Fairfax, sixth baron Fairfax of Cameron, proprietor of the Northern Neck. It was formed from Prince William County in 1742.

Original wills and deeds as well as many other loose papers were destroyed during the Civil War; deed books for twenty-six of the fifty-six years between 1763 and 1819 are missing. Numerous pre-Civil War minute books are missing as well.

Scope and Content

Fairfax County (Va.) County Court Fee Book, 1788, contains the date of the charge for clerk's services, the person to whom charged, the reason, the style of suit, and the cost of the service to be paid to the clerk of court. Most of it is in abbreviated form rather than written out longhand. There is an alphabetical index by surname at the beginning of the volume.

A vellum volume binding labeled "court martial records Fairfax Co." came along with the two volumes in this accession. The binding does not go with either volume.
