F. Claiborne Johnston, Jr. Papers, 1984-2010. Accession 51830. Personal papers collection, The Library of Virginia, Richmond, Virginia.

Biographical Information

Francis Claiborne (Jay) Johnston, Jr. was born in Richmond, Virginia on 6 January 1943. He is the son of Francis Claiborne Johnston, Sr. (1903-1981) and Virginia Maupin Williams (1906-1992). He graduated from Princeton University in 1964, and earned his law degree from the University of Virginia in 1967. Johnston married Carolyn Hooper Satterfield on 5 December 1970. She is the daughter of John Angier Satterfield (1914-2008) and Carolyn Branson Hooper (1925-2008). They live in Richmond, where he practiced law. He also has served on the boards of the Library of Virginia, Westminster-Canterbury Corporation, and The Valentine.

Scope and Content

Papers, 1984-2010, of F. Claiborne Johnston, Jr. of Richmond, Virginia, containing biographical, genealogical, and historical research for various articles, books, and sketches he published between 1987 and 2010. The collection includes abstracts, copies, and transcriptions of census records, chancery records, deeds, land patents and grants, military and pension records, tax records, tombstone inscriptions, vital statistics, and wills and estate administration records. There are also clippings, correspondence with other researchers, compiled genealogies and research by other individuals, drafts and endnotes of his works, genealogical charts, maps, newsletters, obituaries, original family papers, photographs, and published articles and book extracts by others.

Arrangement

This collection is arranged into the following series:

- I. The Williams/Sims Families of Greene/Orange Counties, Virginia (1987).
- II. The Pinder/Ellett Families of Virginia and Georgia and Allied Families (1988).
- III. Satterfield and Allied Families of Person County, North Carolina and Surrounding Counties (1992).

- VI. The Hoopers of Caswell and Durham Counties, North Carolina and Allied Families, With Their Virginia Origins (2002).
- VII. The Tangled Trail of Two John Popes (2010).
- VIII. The Tangled Trail of Benjamin Dawson of Orange and Spotsylvania Counties, and the City of Richmond and Northumberland, Fauquier and Frederick Counties in Virginia (2010).

Contents List

Series I. The Williams/Sims Families of Greene/Orange Counties, Virginia (1987).

Boxes 1-3 (box)

Extent

Extent: 3 boxes.

Scope and Content

The Williams/Sims Families of Greene/Orange Counties, Virginia and Allied Families (Riddle, Powell, McMullan, Walker, Maupin, Banks, Miller, and Beadles) contains information related to Johnston's maternal line. His goal was to trace the Williams and Sims and related family lines as far as possible in America. It includes detailed studies of Orange County court records using published abstracts by others, especially John Frederick Dorman III and Sam and Ruth Sparacio. Johnston also relied heavily upon the work of other researchers who have studied the McMullan, Maupin, Miller, and Powell families.

Scope and Content

The Pinder/Ellett Families of Virginia and Georgia and Allied Families (Pinder, Tebeau, Treutlen, Ellett, Spears, Womack, Sublett, Cheatham, Smith, Trabue) With Some Account of the Pinder/Pindar Family Trail in the Bahama Islands, Bermuda, and Barbados begins with the story of Joseph William Pinder family of Savannah and its Georgia progeny. Johnston then retraces the family backward in time. Succeeding chapters cover the Ellett lines, and then the family of Joseph William Pinder (1828-1897) by his two marriages. Again, his goal was to track all lines as far back in America as possible. The impetus for this volume was the original family papers that were handed down to him by his mother, and research by his aunt, Belle Pinder Rand. There are also bibliographies, guides to library and archival holdings, research aids, and histories of the Bahama Islands, Bermuda, and Barbados, as well as information on the Bahamas DNA Project.

Scope and Content

Satterfield and Allied Families of Person County, North Carolina (Yarbrough, Carter, Bigger, Cary, Winstead, Cozart, Bumpass, Sargent, Gold, Carney, Walker, and Davey Families) contains research on Johnston's wife's ancestors. Beginning with her parents, Johnston attempted to trace back all lines in America, but soon limited it to her paternal line, with a focus on Person, Caswell, and Orange Counties, North Carolina. This series also includes a copy of an article Johnston wrote for the Bulletin of The Genealogical Society of Old Tryon County in 2008 entitled "Rethinking the Ancestry of Daniel Gold (? - 1793) of Mecklenburg County, Virginia."

Scope and Content

The Hoopers of Caswell and Durham County, North Carolina and Allied Families, With Their Virginia Origins (Walker, Henderson, Kimbrough/Kimbro, Jones, Foster, Horton, Wilson/Willson, Strong, Salling and Carter) traces Johnston's wife's maternal line. There is detailed information on the Hooper line in Caswell County that leads back to Zachariah Hooper of Amelia County, Virginia, and other Hooper lines in Virginia. There is also research on the paternal line of Capt. Richard Jones (ca. 1784-1861) of Caswell County, much of it with the aid of Audrey Z. Jones of Lexington, Kentucky. There is a good deal of correspondence with her, as well as Marilyn Symonds. The work of Katherine Kerr Kendall in abstracting Caswell County records, and information on the Hooper family provided by D. Wayne Gunn of Kingsville, Texas was also used to compile this volume. There are also copies of the Hooper Compass newsletter.

Series VII. The Tangled Trail of Two John Popes (2010).

Box 24-25

Extent

Extent: 2 boxes.

Scope and Content

The Tangled Trail of Two John Popes: Colonel John Pope of Amherst County, Virginia, and John Pope of Prince William County, Virginia, and Wilkes County, Georgia contains information on two cousins named John Pope who have often been confused for one another in later attempts to identify the author of A Tour Through the Southern and Western Territories of the United States of North America; the Spanish Dominions on the River Mississippi and in the Floridas; The Countries of the Creek Nations and Many Uninhabited Parts (1792). Johnston's report explores records illuminating the lives and families of each man, one John Pope (1749-1802) who likely was born in Westmoreland County, Virginia, and lived in Prince William County, Virginia, and later in Wilkes County, Georgia, where he died; the other, Colonel John Pope (ca. 1754-1795), who was born in Louisa County, Virginia, and lived in Amherst County, Virginia, and died in Augusta, Georgia.

Series VIII. The Tangled Trail of Benjamin Dawson of Orange and Spotsylvania Counties, and the City of Richmond and Northumberland, Fauquier and Frederick Counties in Virginia (2010).

Box 25-28
Extent

Extent: 4 boxes.

Scope and Content

The Tangled Trail of Benjamin Dawson of Orange and Spotsylvania Counties, the City of Richmond and Northumberland, Fauquier, and Frederick County, Virginia includes information on the identity of the Benjamin Dawson (d. ca. 1826), who married second wife Ann Pope Roy (d. ca. 1832) in 1804, attempting to differentiate him from contemporaries with the same name. There is material on the first marriages of Benjamin and Ann Dawson, the dispute over Benjamin Dawson's will and land he owned in Ohio, his Revolutionary War service, his children with both wives, and likely candidates for his parents and siblings. Johnston's research indicated that this Benjamin Dawson showed up at different times in Frederick, Fauquier, Northumberland, Orange, and Spotsylvania Counties, and Richmond, Virginia.
