Biographical Note

George Green Shackelford was a professor of history at Virginia Tech. He also was a historical preservation expert and specialist in the age of Washington and Jefferson in Virginia history. In 1985, he received an award from the Virginia Chapter of the American Institute of Architecture in historic preservation.

Shackelford attended the Woodberry Forest School, Columbia University, and then the University of Virginia for his Ph.D. He also earned certificates from the Attingham Summer School and Institute of Historical and Archival Management.

In 1942, Shackelford received his commission in the Naval Reserve and served in anti-submarine warfare in the Atlantic and Pacific. He was a Lieutenant by the end of his service.

Before Shackelford taught at Virginia Tech from 1954 to 1986, he taught at Birmingham Southern College from 1948 to 1949 and worked as a research fellow at the Virginia Historical Society. From 1963 to 1964, Shackelford spearheaded the restoration of Smithfield Plantation. In 1967, he worked as a historical consultant to the Westmoreland David Memorial Foundation for Morven Park in Leesburg, Virginia.

Shackelford was also a prolific author. He wrote five books, including Jefferson's Adoptive Son: The Life of William Short, 1759-1849 and Thomas Jefferson's Travels in Europe, 1784-1789. He also wrote many articles and was the co-editor of the Virginia Social Sciences Journal.

Throughout his career, Shackelford was active in numerous associations and boards:

- He was the President of the Monticello Association from 1969 to 1971.
- He was on the board of directors for Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities (APVA; now Preservation Virginia), and was the President of the Montgomery Branch of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities in 1975.
- He was a member of the Board of Advisors of the National Trust for Historical Preservation from 1976 until 1979.
- He was a member of the Virginia Commission on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution from 1987 until 1992.
- He was the President of the Southwest Virginia Branch of the English Speaking Union.

Scope and Content

The collection contains materials relating George Green Shackelford, a professor of history at Virginia Tech and includes clippings, correspondence, memoranda, bulletins, scrapbooks, and other materials relating to the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities (now Preservation Virginia); the National Trust; the New River Historical Association; the Virginia Landmark Commission the Democratic Committee of Montgomery County (Virginia); the Visiting Scholar Committee of the College of Arts and Sciences for VPI&SU; Blacksburg, Virginia, and Southwest Virginia history; historic properties in Blacksburg and Southwest Virginia, particularly Smithfield Plantation; and of Virginia and VPI&SU related topics.

Two notable collection items are a card from Mrs. John F. Kennedy thanking Shackelford for his sympathy for her husband's death and an invite to a reception in honor of Mrs. Douglas MacArthur of The National Officers of the Hereditary Societies of the United States at The Washington Club.

Although most collection items relate to Shackelford's professional and academic career, some notable personal items include local clippings reporting his wedding to Grace Howard McConnell and various invitations to his home for holiday parties. Because Shackelford was a prolific letter writer and maintained close relationships with many of his colleagues, his professional correspondence often includes personal inquiries.

This collection is arranged into six series--Series I: Correspondence; Series II: Manuscripts, Projects, Research, and Academic Papers; Series III: Association papers; Series IV: Personal Papers; Series V: Scrapbooks; and Series IV: Oversized Materials. Within these series, there is some subject overlap within individual folders.

Arrangement

This collection is arranged first by material type, then subject, and then alphabetically. Some subject and series overlap within individual folders.

Series I: Correspondence, 1939-1990 This series is separated by authors. Where no large group by one author existed, correspondence was arranged in folders in alphabetical order. Efforts were made to separate professional and personal correspondence, but a great deal of overlap remains.

Series II: Manuscripts, Projects, Research, and Academic Papers, 1899-1990 (bulk 1955-1989) This series contains drafts of papers, research materials, and completed papers, arranged in alphabetical order.

Series III: Association Papers, 1956-1987 This series includes materials Shackelford kept from the various professional and political groups he associated with, in alphabetical order by group.

Series IV: Personal Papers, 1939-1985 Series IV contains personal materials relating Shackelford and his life, arranged alphabetically by subject.

Series V: Scrapbooks, 1943-1971 These scrapbooks were put together by Shackelford of newspaper articles, mostly from the Richmond Times.

Series VI: Oversized Materials, 1943-1985 Oversized materials include newspaper clippings, brochures, and publications, arranged by subject.
