Administrative History

The Sahel Regional Financial Management Project was organized to improve the financial management of Sahelian institutions that manage funds from the U.S. Agency for International Development. The countries involved were the United States, Senegal, Gambia, Chad, Burkina Faso, Mali, and Niger. The Sahel is the ecoclimatic and biogeographic zone of transition, in Africa, between the Sahara desert to the north and the Sudanian Savanna to the south.

The Sahel Regional Financial Management Project began in the Office of International Programs, established in 1975. It is the predecessor to the Division of Outreach and International Affairs, which was established in 2003.
