Historical Information

Located near the town of Warren in southern Albemarle County, Virginia, Ballenger Creek became a Baptist church in the late eighteenth or early nineteenth century. The church dissolved sometime after 1865.

Scope and Content

The first book, "Old Church Book up to Nov. 1856," contains membership lists of white, enslaved, and free Black members, rules for church government, and meeting minutes for May 1846 - January 1847 and March 1847 - May 1856.

The second book begins in October 1852 and contains rules for church government, a roll of white members (November 1856), and church meeting minutes for September 1856 - May 1859 and July 1859 - July 1863.
