Biographical / Historical

Carol Elizabeth Stoops Droessler graduated from Longwood College in 1950. While attending Longwood Carol was a member of the Rotunda Staff, Dramatic Club, Newman Club and Cotillion Club. She married Earl Droessler in the 1950s. Throughout her life, Carol was interested in Lewis Carroll's Alice books. She collected published editions of his books, memorabilia and ephemera of Lewis Carroll and Alice. She joined the Lewis Carroll Society of North America in the late 1980s, and attended meetings of the organization and participated in tours and lectures.

Scope and Contents

The collection includes memorabilia and ephemera related mostly to Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, but also includes items related to Alice Through the Looking Glass. The collection also includes papers, correspondence and photos related to Carol's membership in the Lewis Carroll Society of North America.

Related Materials

The Droessler Collection in Greenwood Library's Special Collection is a collection of books donated by Earl Droessler at the same times as these memorabilia items. The books include a multitude of editions of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, Alice through the Looking Glass, and other books by or about Lewis Carroll and his Alice books. For a listing of the publications, search the Longwood University Greenwood Library Catalog.

Custodial History

Items were collected by Carol Droessler who made plans to donate the collection to Longwood in April 1998. Her husband Earl Droessler officially donated the collection to Greenwood Library after her death in 1998.
