Biographical / Historical

H2O club was formed in 1935 to "foster higher standards of swimming and to sponsor swimming activities" The club served as life guards for the schools indoor swimming pool, and put on water shows throughout the year. Around 1963 the Corkettes began to work with the H2O club to put on full synchronized swimming routines. By 1979 a synchronized swimming team named the Catalinas had been founded at Longwood combining and formalizing the activities of the other two organizations.

Scope and Contents

This collection includes scrapbooks of the H2O club (synchronized swimming team) of Longwood. The scrapbooks include photographs, programs from events and newspaper clippings. The collection also includes some ephemera that had fallen out of the scrapbooks.

Related Materials

LU-083 Delta Psi Kappa, some photographs in this collection may be from these two scrapbooks. LU-115 Catalinas, the Catalina club was formed from the H2O club

Custodial History

The origins of these scrapbooks is unknown. In August 2010 they were removed from the Health, Athletics, Recreation, and Kinesiology Department by Dr. Carl Riden and Dr. Naomi Johnson-Tsigaridas, then Co-Directors of Women and Gender Studies. They were subsequently transferred to the Greenwood Library Archives.
