Historical Information

The Office of the Senior Vice president handled internal operations of the University, represented the office of the President on numerous internal and external events and activities, served as University representative on the Board of Visitors Committees for Finance and Resource Development and staffed the Land Use and Development Committee, and served as the contract officer of the University, who is responsible for final negotiation of all partnership agreements and competitive negotiations. As the University changed over the years so did the structure of its leadership. This office is no longer in existence.

Scope and Content

This collection contains the records of Dr. J. Wade Gilley, Senior Vice President of George Mason University at the time. The collection has documents from the late 1970s to the early 1990s. Materials in the collection include correspondence, meeting notes and agendas, news clippings, athletic programs, newsletters, budget documents, images, and important policies and procedures documents, among other things. It also includes material pertaining to the George Mason Institute, The Prince William Institute of Applied Systems, and the Virginia Initiative. These are some of the documents you will find in the collection, for a more detailed list of the materials in each box see the contents list below.
