Biographical / Historical

The Institute Honors Program exists primarily to enrich the academic experience of VMI's outstanding students. Students enrolled in the program are required to participate in a number of activities throughout their four years at VMI, and must complete a senior thesis or project.

Scope and Contents

The records consist:

1. Dean's office administrative files of students who participated in the Honors Programs
2. Recordings of student presentations (video) and miscellaneous printed material relating to the program. No program administrative records are included.
