Scope and Contents

This collection consists of two documents. One is an 1836 document to the stockholders of the Millsboro and Kerrs Creek Turnpike Company from the company's president Alexander T. Barclay. He provides background information, mentions accepting a proposal for making a road, tolls, and other business. There is also a letter written by John C. Bowyer to James Brown, Jr. of the Board of Public Works that serves as a report to the Board.
