Biographical / Historical

These student architecture papers were done for Art classes at Washington and Lee, mostly taught by Prof. Pam Simpson. The papers include homes and buildings in Lexington and other places in Rockbridge County, Virginia. Included in the papers are deed tracings, social and architectural history, maps and photographs. Prof. Simpson and Royster Lyle published the book, The Architecture of Historic Lexington in 1977. This book and these papers are an invaluable resource for researchers.

Scope and Contents

This record group contains papers and projects created by students as part of their coursework, such as honors theses and capstone papers.
