Biographical or Historical Information

The Virginia Stage Company (VSC) was originally founded as the Norfolk Theater Center in 1968. Originally, theater productions took place in a 120 seat space at the Norfolk Public Library on Freemason Street. In the mid-1970s, productions were moved to a space under Chrysler Hall. At that time, the Norfolk Theater Center became the Stage Downunder at Scope. In a move to develop the organization into a professional theater, the organization's Board of Trustees adopted the name "Virginia Stage Company" and began hiring professional staff in 1978. Planning was aided by the National Foundation for the Expansion and Development of American Theater. With expansion plans in place, the Virginia Stage Company needed to find a venue for productions. Out of 49 possible venues, the Norfolk Wells Theater was chosen. With the help of the Norfolk Redevelopment and Housing Authority, funds were raised for the purchase of the Wells Theater. In October 1979, the lease was purchased and initial renovations were begun. The Virginia Stage Company premiered its opening season at the Wells on February 7, 1980. In 1986, the Wells Theater was fully restored and became a National Historic Landmark.

The Virginia Stage Company is Hampton Roads only professional theater company. The VSC produces six plays per year running from September through April. In addition to theater productions, the organization provides educational and community engagement programs including student matinees, in-school tours, workshops, and a summer theater camp.
