Organizational History

Two recurring problems in Historical Black Colleges and Universities has been finances and recognition. This association was formed during the era of segregation in an effort to combat these two issues.

The Intercollegiate Music Association was conceived by F.Nathaniel Gatlin E.Ed in 1960. Professor Gatlin called an organizational meeting at Virginia State University in 1960, where the purpose and goals were discussed.

Over the course of the next two years a series of meetings were held whic produced a Constitution and By-laws, and the organization was officially established in 1962. The IMA membership was open for all members of the Central Intercollegiate Athletics Association.

Scope and Content Information

Correspondence, minutes, photographs, and reports documenting how the IMA attempted to fulfill it's goals of 1962.

The Intercollegiate Music Association continues today as an organization in improving music education and operate in the Mid-Atlantic.
