Accruals

Accruals are expected as departments send materials to the Archives.

Scope and Content

The Academic Affairs Collection houses materials such as departmental records, course descriptions, class schedules from 1975- 1983 and other materials related to academic departments and courses offered at Radford from 1934-present. Transfer of materials has been inconsistent over the years, and many materials are not in the Archives. A general request was sent to all academic departments in the summer of 2010 to transfer all records 5 years or older to the Archives.
