Biographical / Historical

The Richmond Area Community Council began in 1911. In 1924 it created the Community Fund, a community-wide trust, to consolidate the fund-raising efforts of area charitable organizations, like the YWCA and Associated Charities (later the Family Service Society). During World War II, the Community Fund became the Richmond War and Community Fund, and after the war the Richmond Community Chest. In 1974, the Richmond Area Community Council announced the merger of the Council with the United Way.

Scope and Contents

The collection consists of various committee programs and lists of committee members ranging in date from 1910-1980. In addition, scrapbooks reveal the activities of the organization, and photographs depict past presidents of the Richmond Community Council.

Keywords

Poor -- Services for -- Virginia -- Richmond.

Charities -- Virginia -- Richmond.

Philanthropists -- Virginia -- Richmond.

United Way of Greater Richmond

Richmond Community Fund (Va.)

Arrangement

The papers are arranged alphabetically, then chronologically. The presidential photographs, which are arranged according to year of presidency beginning with the earliest president, and other photographs, also arranged according to year follow the scrapbooks. The scrapbooks are located in the oversized area with other scrapbooks. The photographs have been transferred to the University Photograph collection.
