

A Guide to the 1952 All America City Award Records 1952-1954

A Guide to the 1952 All America City Award Records

---

A Collection in Roanoke Public Libraries 2014.04.18

Roanoke Public Libraries

2014

History

Processed by: Special Collections Staff

Title Statement

A Guide to the 1952 All America City Award Records 1952-1954

Subtitle: 1952 All American City Award Records, A Guide to the Collection: 2014.4.18.

Publication Statement

Date: © 2014 By the Roanoke Public Libraries. All rights reserved.

Publisher: Roanoke Public Libraries

Conditions of Use

Profile Description

Creation: Machine-readable finding aid derived from MS Word, created by Dyron Knick, 20140825

Language Usage: Description is in English

Revision Description

20140825 Converted to schema conforming EAD by dtd2schema.vh.xsl.

Descriptive Summary

Accession Number

2014.04.18

Language

English

Physical Characteristics

1 legal record storage box

Repository

Roanoke Public Libraries

Administrative Information

Access Restrictions

There are no restrictions.

Use Restrictions

There are no restrictions.

Acquisition Information

M. Carl Andrews

Preferred Citation

1952 All American City Award Records, Accession #2014.4.18, Roanoke Public Libraries, Roanoke, VA

Biographical Note

The 1952 All-America City Award Records were created and or collected and compiled by M. Carl Andrews, Editor of the Roanoke Times and World News. Items include correspondence to and from Andrews in reference to the award and nomination, photographs, news clippings, and other related documents. M. Carl Andrews (Oct. 24, 1904 – June 9, 1994), a native of Logan County, Oklahoma, grew up in Newport News and came to Roanoke in 1929 to join the staff of The Roanoke Times. He was a news editor from 1929 until 1935, at which point he was assigned to cover the Franklin County liquor conspiracy trial. He was made city editor of the Times in 1937 and held that post until he left for service in World War II in 1943. Upon his return in 1946, he was named editorial page editor of The World-News, a position he held until his retirement November 1, 1969. Andrews was actively involved in numerous civic and professional organizations, serving as Chairman of the Mill Mountain Development Committee, co-Chair of the committee organizing America's Bicentennial Celebration, and a founding member of the National Conference of Editorial Writers.

Scope and Content

The collection consists of one legal-size document storage case, consisting of eighteen file folders. Items include: personal and professional correspondence, photographs, press releases, radio transcript, several periodical containing related articles, news clippings, banquet menu, and an address by George Gallup. The dates of materials in the collection are between the years of 1952 and 1954, with a separate file for all documents related to attempts at the award in the 1960s. Some highlights of the collection include letters to Andrews from Congressman Richard Poff and the editorial staff of Look magazine. One 8 1/2