Biographical / Historical

Robert Sharp bought 590 acres of land from Nelson Anderson in 1761 in Keswick, Virginia. He gave about 200 acres of the land to his son in 1780. Robert Sharp Jr. built Limestone Farm in 1794. James Monroe bought 175 acres of the land from Thomas Sharp in 1816. George C. Blaetterman bought the property in 1828. Bill and Pooh Johnson are the current owners of the property and successfully applied for a National Historic Landmark Registry. The limestone is thought to have been used by Thomas Jefferson for Monticello and the University of Virginia. Included is Al Sharp's research about Hemings family members that were enslaved at Limestone Farm by President James Monroe.

Included are family papers of relatives of the Sharp family: Colonel John Todd McQuiddy (1828-1885)

Content Description

Scope and Contents

The Muslim Outlook was started as a daily in 1922. This was the first daily English newspaper ever owned by a Muslim and was brought out with the object of voicing the feelings of the Muslims in North-Western India. In the first year of its publication the paper enjoyed a circulation of 1,800 copies a day.

The Muslim Outlook was a champion of the Pan-Islamic movement and was a modern paper in every sense. The display of news was quite up-to-date with two to five-decker head-lines set in different varieties of type. When the paper ceased its publication in 1932, its circulation had risen to 2,260.
