Historical Note

The University of Virginia's Women's Club, founded in 1948, is open to all women who are current or former employees of the University of Virginia, or who are a spouse, widow, or domestic partner of a current or former employee of the University. The Women's Club's goal is to connect women within the University community and provides occasions for social gathering and community service, in addition to lifelong learning through lectures, workshops, and field trips.

Content Description

Includes meeting minutes, printed emails, photos, letters, invitations, newspaper clippings, payment records, philanthropic works, event flyers, etc. relating to over three and a half decades (1979-2016) of the Women's Club's proceedings and events. The fourth 2015-2016 folder includes details about sexual assault and sexual assault prevention within the University.
