Administrative Information

Immediate Source of Acquisition

University of Virginia Law Library Public Documents Department transferred this collection to Special Collections in 1982.

Scope and Contents

This collection contains speeches and press releases from various officials of the United States Department of Justice. All the items are typescript copies and date generally from the World War II period. Most of the speeches concern domestic legal and economic issues, chiefly civil rights, demobilization, and labor problems.

Speeches presented by the following individuals:

Francis Biddle, Attorney General of the United States (1941-1945). Thomas C. Clark, Attorney General of the United States (1945-1949). J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (1924-1972). Herbert A. Bergson, Assistant Attorney General of the United States (1948-1950). J. Howard McGrath, Attorney General of the United States (1949-1952). Philip B. Perlman, Solicitor General of the United States (1947-1952). Wendell Berge, Assistant Attorney General of the United States (1941-1943).
