Douglas H. Gordon, Additional Papers, 1934-1988, Accession #10419-e, Special Collections, University of Virginia Library, Charlottesville, Va.

Biographical/Historical Information

Douglas Huntly Gordon (1902-), lawyer and financier, of Charlecote House, Baltimore, Maryland, received his law degree from Harvard University in 1928 and was admitted to the Maryland bar in 1929. He was assistant United States district attorney for Maryland from 1934-1939. He was president of St. John's College, Annapolis, Maryland, 1931-1934; and, president of the Municipal Arts Society, Baltimore, Maryland, 1935-1970. Memberships included the American Bar Association, Decorated Legion of Honor, and Palmes Academiques in France. He was the author of legal and historical articles. Gordon was a collector of books, especially those of the French Renaissance, and of drawings, especially those of eighteenth and nineteenth century France. He married Winifred Macmillan Claude on June 2, 1934.

Scope and Content Information

The additional papers of Douglas H. Gordon consist of correspondence, papers, financial papers, photographs, and printed material pertaining to European travel. There are travel itineraries, 1946-1985; agendas for International Law Conferences, business correspondence and records; records and receipts for purchases of art and literature; also literary reviews, newsclippings, sheets from sales catalogues, museum catalogues, cards, and art prints. Also included are three manuscript binders of catalogues of the early and late French Books of the Charlecote House Library, vol. 1-3, and 16 photographs of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas H. Gordon, ca. 1934-1980. There is also personal correspondence from Winifred M. Gordon and other family members and letters pertaining to routine legal matters among the papers. Contained throughout are lists of names and addresses in Europe, particularly London, England; Paris, France; and Brussels, Belgium.

Organization

Material was removed from folders with brackets and then placed in folders in the same order as removed. Each set of papers for a specific year is chiefly filed in reverse chronological order.
