Scope and Content

This collection consists of 27 sermons delivered by the Rev. Russell Cecil (1853-1925), 1911-1924, mostly to the Second Presbyterian Church of Richmond where he served as minister beginning in 1901. Several other sermons were delivered to the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association in Richmond.

Also included in the collection is a list of Virginia Girl Scout service activities, ca. 1942-1943, and his report, "A Brief Historical Statement of the Enlistments and Activities of the Second Presbyterian Church, Richmond, VA, in the World War of 1917-1918," written 21 December, 1920. The report lists all members of the congregation engaged in over-seas service and gives an account of the activities of the church at home during the war. All material is arranged in chronological order. A biographical sketch of the Rev. Russell Cecil can be found in the control folder.
