Preferred Citation

The Papers of J. Rives Childs, Accession #9256-d , Special Collections Dept., University of Virginia Library, Charlottesville, Va.

Printed Materials Belonging to J. Rives Childs

Scope and Content Information

The additional papers of J. Rives Childs accessioned as #9256-d comprise 19 Hollinger boxes and 1 oversize folio. In addition to his manuscripts, there are nine books and magazines and a newspaper.

Arrangement

The collection is divided into three parts, the first of which contains correspondence and personal items. Childs' correspondence is mainly with his family and the Baroness Marcelle de Jouvenel. Other correspondence is grouped under the heading "General Correspondence." Among Childs' personal items are articles written by him, Confederate bills, a diary of Mrs. John W. Childs, 1873- 1876, items concerning Childs' student days, and pictures of Childs and his wife.

The second part of the collection contains papers relating to the life of Jacques Casanova. Included are copies of Casanova's Memoirs and letters, articles written about Casanova, research notes of Childs and other Casanova scholars, and correspondence between Childs and various people interested in Casanova. Two boxes contain microfilmed copies of Casanova materials.

The last part of this collection contains two manuscripts about the middle east and three boxes of snapshots of Childs' foreign travels.
