List and Identification of Family Members Who Appear in the Correspondence

Scope and Content Information

The Additional Papers of the Hammond Family, 1805-1936, consist of 1.7 shelf feet (ca. 1340 items) of correspondence, papers, photographs, prints, newspaper clippings, and mementoes. Virtually all of the correspondence is between family members and is personal in nature. There are many letters from Anna Caroline Hammond to her children, Charles Howes Hammond and Mary Goldsborough Hammond, and from Mary to her nephew, Kensey Johns Hammond, an Episcopal minister. The correspondence of the latter concerns church as well as personal affairs and reflects his interest in genealogy. The papers include sermons, prayers, family tress, and notes on genealogy.

Organization

The papers arrived at the library in rough chronological order, and they have been arranged entirely chronologically. The correspondence is followed by the papers, drawing, photographs, and prints, newspaper clippings, postcards, souvenirs and mementoes, and one bound volume.
