Biographical / Historical

Elizabeth "Betty" Washington Lewis (1733-1797) was the sister of American President George Washington. During her marriage to Fielding Lewis, she managed the family's household and property. Lewis was frequently visited by her brother and assisted him during both the Revolutionary War and his Presidency. Lewis had eleven children, seven of whom survived into adulthood.

Content Description

The collection contains 20 paper manuscripts. The papers were written by members of the Betty Washington Lewis family. Some papers were signed by Lewis. The papers date from 1783 - 1844.

General

William & Mary Libraries' archival, digital and physical collections may contain content with harmful language or difficult subject matters. We strive for transparency in making these materials available for teaching and research, but we do not endorse the attitudes, prejudices or behaviors found within them.

William & Mary Libraries' perspective on harmful content and language aligns with the U.S. National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), Digital Public Library of America (DPLA) and university libraries around the world.

Arrangement

The Betty Washington Lewis family papers are arranged into one series: Series I. General papers.
