Biographical / Historical

The Forum of the College of William and Mary took a concrete form in the Spring of 1989 with two meetings and a reception. This effort was revived in 1991, and the Black Faculty and Staff Forum (as it was then known) quickly became a recognized vehicle for advancing the interests of the Black community at the College in the 1991-92 academic year. The Forum organized itself formally with bylaws and duly elected officers in the Fall of 1992.

The purpose of the Forum is to:

- * Promote the recruitment and retention, promotion and tenure, and professional development and career advancement of a diverse faculty, administrators, and staff at the College;
- * To address issues of concerns to the campus community, including campus climate;
- * To provide support for recruitment and retention a diverse student body;
- * To expand and strengthen the relationship and involvement of faculty and staff of the College with the wider College community.
- * To foster a greater sense of community and mutual support among the faculty, staff and students of the College through mentoring and networking.

The organization's name was changed to the Forum in 2005.
