Historical Note:

Founded in 1958 at the College of William and Mary, Circle K International is an international co-educational service organization sponsored by Kiwanis International. The three core tenets of the Circle K club are service, fellowship, and leadership. More information about Circle K at the College of William and Mary can be found on their website at <http://www.wmcki.org/aboutcki.php>. Further information about this individual or organization may be available in the Special Collections Research Center Wiki: http://scdbwiki.swem.wm.edu/wiki/index.php/Circle_K_International.

Scope and Contents

This collection contains two scrapbooks and various loose clippings and photographs related to the student service group Circle K International at the College of William and Mary. One of the scrapbooks includes photographs, clippings, correspondence, and announcements of various events in the organization from 1964 to 1965. The other scrapbook is disbound and out of order, but contains photographs, clippings, ephemera, and reports pertaining to Circle K from 1958 to 1964. There are also loose clippings, photographs, and certificates from circa 1958 to 1985 that may have been part of a scrapbook at one point in time.

The collection also includes fliers and announcements for Circle K International from 1967 to the present that were previously part of the Student Organizations Collection.

Related Materials:
