Conditions Governing Access:

This collection is closed. It may be opened by the Committee Chairperson or by a permanent member of the University Archives staff. Manuscript collections and archival records may contain materials with sensitive or confidential information that is protected under federal or state right to privacy laws and regulations, such as the Virginia Public Records Act (Code of Virginia. § 42.1-76-91); and the Virginia Freedom of Information Act (Code of Virginia § 2.2-3705.5). Confidential material may include, but is not limited to, educational, medical, and personnel records. If sensitive material is found in this collection, please contact a staff member immediately. The disclosure of personally identifiable information pertaining to a living individual may have legal consequences for which the College of William and Mary assumes no responsibility.

Acquisition Information:

Acc. 1980.008 transferred by the Procedural Review Committee on 10/18/1979.

Preferred Citation:

Procedural Review Committee Records, Special Collections Research Center, Earl Gregg Swem Library, College of William and Mary.

Historical Note:

The Procedural Review Committee is a standing committee of eight members and eight alternates; four are elected from the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, and one each from the Schools of Business, Education, and Law, and the Virginia Institute of Marine Science, which includes the School of Marine Science. Each faculty or school provides for means of selection and for alternates. The Procedural Review Committee is charged with reviewing the procedures established by departments and schools for the evaluation of faculty members. Further information about this individual or organization may be available in the Special Collections Research Center Wiki:
