Administrative Information

Conditions Governing Access:

The collection is open to all researchers. Manuscript collections and archival records may contain materials with sensitive or confidential information that is protected under federal or state right to privacy laws and regulations, such as the Virginia Public Records Act (Code of Virginia. § 42.1-76-91); and the Virginia Freedom of Information Act (Code of Virginia § 2.2-3705.5). Confidential material may include, but is not limited to, educational, medical, and personnel records. If sensitive material is found in this collection, please contact a staff member immediately. The disclosure of personally identifiable information pertaining to a living individual may have legal consequences for which the College of William and Mary assumes no responsibility.

Conditions Governing Use:

Before reproducing or quoting from any materials, in whole or in part, permission must be obtained from the Special Collections Research Center, and the holder of the copyright, if not Swem Library.

Preferred Citation:

Student Rights and Responsibilities Collection, Special Collections Research Center, Earl Gregg Swem Library, College of William and Mary.

Historical Note:

April 30, 2003: The Office of Student Affairs and the Division of Student Affairs are coexistent. The Office of Student Affairs is the name of the office of the vice president for student affairs; Division of Student Affairs is the umbrella for all the departments and offices that report to that office. Further information about this individual or organization may be available in the Special Collections Research Center Wiki:
