Biographical / Historical

The College of William and Mary's Marching Band was disbanded in the fall of 1995 and the following year the Department of Music started a student pep band. In 1999, the William and Mary Pep Band emerged as a completely student-run organization. The Pep Band currently performs at all home football games, men's basketball games, and select women's basketball games.

Scope and Contents

The collection includes an administrative materials such as a manual, brochures, digital images, halftime show script and formations, and other materials from the student-run William and Mary Pep Band.

Audio-Visual material received electronically is available in the William and Mary digital repository.
