Preferred Citation:

Letters to George Yusa, 1947- 1948, Special Collections Research Center, Swem Library, College of William and Mary.

Content Description

Collection of five letters, a telegram, and pictures addressed to George T. Yusa spanning the years 1947-1948. Most of the letters give updates on fellow servicemen from World War II and detail the fear of another war with Korea based on President Truman's talk and actions. Yusa ultimately reenlisted in the Army and fought in Korea. He was severely wounded in June 1951 but recovered from his injuries.
