Biographical / Historical

James G. Driver attended William & Mary from 1905-1907 and from 1908-1910.

Scope and Contents

The collection includes three items: Driver's Certificate of Distinction from William & Mary, dated June 14, 1906, for having passed the required examinations for his American and Virginia History class, a pamphlet for "University of the Air," an invitational track and field meet under the auspices of the U. S. Naval Air Station, dated June 27, 1942, and an example of an order acknowledgement card for Driver's business of selling "Fine Virginia Foods" at a store on Duke of Gloucester Street.
