Preferred Citation

Laura J. Noblit letter to Eliza, Attica, Ohio, 1864 January 28, Special Collections Research Center, William & Mary Libraries.

Scope and Contents

Four page letter directed to a friend to inform her of her new situation as a house maid for a wealthy family. The house in which she works seems the finest in the town of Attica, according to Noblit. Additionally, she writes that the townspeople are celebrating constantly, especially since many of the soldiers have returned from battle. Other parts of the letter reference church services and winter weather.
