Administrative Information

Conditions Governing Access:

The collection is open to all researchers.

Manuscript collections and archival records may contain materials with sensitive or confidential information that is protected under federal or state right to privacy laws and regulations, such as the Virginia Public Records Act (Code of Virginia, § 42.1-76-91); and the Virginia Freedom of Information Act (Code of Virginia § 2.2-3705.5). Confidential material may include, but is not limited to, educational, medical, and personnel records. If sensitive material is found in this collection, please contact a staff member immediately. The disclosure of personally identifiable information pertaining to a living individual may have legal consequences for which the College of William and Mary assumes no responsibility.

Conditions Governing Use:

Before publishing quotations or excerpts from any materials, permission must be obtained from the Special Collections Research Center, and the holder of the copyright, if not Swem Library.

Preferred Citation:

Office of Special Programs Records, Special Collections Research Center, Earl Gregg Swem Library, College of William and Mary.

Historical Note:

The Office of Special Programs administers a variety of non-credit short courses, seminars, institutes, field studies, and conferences for those who cannot participate in full-time degree programs. Further information about this individual or organization may be available in the Special Collections Research Center Wiki:
