Biographical Information:

Theodore Russell Reinhart received his Ph.D. in anthropology from the University of New Mexico in 1968. He arrived at William & Mary as an Assistant Professor of Anthropology in 1968, was appointed Associate Professor in 1974, and achieved the rank of full professor in 1986. He retired from William & Mary in May 2003. Dr. Reinhart has extensive archaeological field experience in several states, including New Mexico, Arizona, Kansas, Florida, and Virginia, and he has published articles and books on a wide range of topics. He specializes in North American archaeology, Native American cultures, and historical archaeology. He also played an instrumental role in the formation of the Council of Virginia Archaeologists (COVA).

Series 5: SlidesUnit ID id24468Unit ID /repositories/2/archival_objects/402796Unit Date circa 1965-2000Scope and Contents

This series includes slides created by Prof. Reinhart during the course of excavations and site visits. A catalog to the slides is available. The series also includes the field director's slides of the excavations in 1970-1971 of the Arroyo Hondo site (southeast of Santa Fe, New Mexico) by the School of American Research. In 1971, six College of William and Mary students, with their professor (the field director), took part in these excavations: Professor Theodore R. Reinhart, Ronald D. Anzalone, Mary C. Beaudry, Linda A. Heck, James L. Miller, Jr., Ray R. Sasser, Jr., and Mary C. Slusser. In addition to print slides, digital versions of some slide shows along with corresponding presentations and scripts for some sites, are available. Print slides from the 1979 and 1980 College of William and Mary field schools at Shirley Plantation were given to Shirley Plantation prior to the transfer of all other slides to Swem Library, but digital versions are available in the reading room.
