Biographical / Historical

Tony Constatine, a Morgantown, West Virginia native and son of immigrants, served 37 years as sports editor of the Morgantown Post from 1936-1972. Constatine was employed as a newspaper sales boy in his youth, and later worked at the Morgantown Glassware Guild, in construction, and in the restaurant business. His experience helping local news reporter and longtime friend Dave Jacobs keep statistics at games let to a job at the Post. He married and raised five children.
