Abstract

"History of the Pierpont-Avery Community," compiled by John C. Bayles, is a genealogical and local history study of this Monongalia County, West Virginia, settlement on the Cheat River from the late 1700s to 1930s. Narrative is 250-pages long and describes the geography of the area, community leaders, churches and schools, general history, and climate. Also includes several black-and-white photographs.
